B. BREWERS AND BEER WHOLESALERS

Section 31 of the Rules and Regulations pertaining to Brewers and Beer Wholesalers is hereby revised and amended to read as follows:

(31) No sale or delivery of draught or bottled beer shall be made to or accepted by any retail licensee except for cash paid at the time of or prior to delivery thereof; provided that credit not to exceed thirty days may be extended to and received by holders of Class E licenses, who hold no other license to sell beer, and to holders of licenses under section 23, subsection 6 of the Washington State Liquor Act.

Retail licensees who, on the effective date hereof, are indebted to a brewer or beer wholesaler, shall retire and pay such indebtedness at a minimum rate of fifty cents (50¢) per half barrel of draught beer, and twenty-five cents (25¢) per case of bottled beer thereafter purchased, without regard to the source from which beer is purchased, which said payments shall be made to and accepted by the brewer or beer wholesaler to whom such indebtedness is due, until such indebtedness is fully paid; provided that this regulation shall not apply to holders of licenses under section 23, subsection 6 of the Washington State Liquor Act, nor to Class E licensees who hold no other license to sell beer.

This regulation shall be effective on and after November 1, 1935.
